Summary of changes

Below is a summary of the key changes which may impact the way you use Super Accelerator.

Minimum interest rate we pay on money you hold in the cash account

We will be reducing the minimum interest rate that we will pay on money you hold in your cash account, as shown in the table below. This reduction will apply from 1 March 2025.

Current interest rate

The funds in your cash account earn monthly interest at a rate set by us and the Administrator. The rate is usually set at no less than 0.65% p.a. less than the target cash rate set by the Reserve Bank of Australia during the month (which is often referred to as the official cash rate ('Official Cash Rate')). If you hold more than $250,000 in your cash account then the rate may be lower on part or all of the amount over $250,000.

New interest rate

The funds in your cash account earn monthly interest at a rate set by us and the Administrator. The rate is usually set at no less than 0.80% p.a. less than the target cash rate set by the Reserve Bank of Australia during the month (which is often referred to as the official cash rate ('Official Cash Rate')). If you hold more than $250,000 in your cash account then the rate may be lower on part or all of the amount over $250,000.

Information about the rate of interest you earn on funds held in your cash account is published on our website at <https://www.netwealth.com.au/web/personal/investment-options/term-deposits-and-cash>.

The cash account is intended for use as a short-term transaction account and is not intended to be used as an investment option.

If you require cash-based investments as part of your investment strategy, you can obtain information about the available investment options on our website, by contacting us, or from your adviser.

Update to the operational risk financial requirement ('ORFR') cost

We will be introducing a cap to the ORFR cost. This fee will be capped at a maximum of $300 p.a. per Super Accelerator account. This cap will be applicable from 1 July 2025.

Change in terminology for ASX listed securities

References to ASX listed securities will be changed to Australian listed securities to include securities listed on the CBOE Australia exchange.

This will also result in name changes to the following fees. The amount of these fees will remain unchanged. These fees apply only to Super Accelerator Plus.

Current names

ASX listed securities - brokerage fee

ASX listed securities - share settlement fee

Member advice fee - ASX listed securities

New names
